Hague, November 16, N. S.

THE States of Holland disposed to Day of all their vacant Employments Civil and Military. To Day came an Account of the Death of M. Mabrilar, by which the Command of a Regiment of Foot is become vacant; but that, as also the Command of the late M. Caris's Regiment, will not be disposed of till the Meeting of the States of Holland in March next. The President M. Boetselaer lies very dangerously ill here of a Pleurisy, and M. van Citters, Grand Pensionary of Zealand, lies very ill at Middlebourg. The Duke of Richmond set out from hence Yesterday Morning early in order to embark at Helvoetsluys for England. The Spanish Ambassador is preparing to give a great Entertainment on Monday next, being the Festival of St. Elizabeth, whose Name the Queen of Spain bears.

Dublin, October 30.

This Day being his Majesty's Birth-day, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green: At Noon there was a numerous Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment their Excellencies the Lords Justices upon this Occasion, before whom a Song was performed: After which their Excellencies, attended with the Guard of Battle-Axes, and a Squadron of Horse, made a Tour upon the Strand. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall, November 8.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto William Janssen, Esq; the Office or Place of Provost Marshal General of his Majesty's Leeward Charibbe Islands in America, void by the surrender of Patrick Crauford, Esq;

Whitehall, October 26, 1736.

Whereas George Kelly, a Prisoner in the Tower of London, made his Escape from thence Yesterday, as is supposed between the Hours of Seven and Eight in the Evening: Her Majesty is graciously pleased to promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons that shall apprehend and seize, or cause to be apprehended, and seized, the said George Kelly, so that he may be secured, and proceeded against according to Law.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

The said George Kelly is aged about Forty Eight Years, Five Foot Ten Inches high, or thereabouts, a little too slender leg'd for his Height, of a fair Complexion, good Teeth, large blue Eyes, and a broad and flatish Face, inclining to be slender rather than fat, his Hair is very greyish, and the Fore-part of his Head, or near the Middle of it, is very bald.

A. Williamson.

Whitehall, November 6, 1736.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the Queen, that Captain Alexander Innes was on Sunday the Nineteenth Day of September last past, robbed and murdered in the Old Bailey, London, about Ten of the Clock in the Evening: Her Majesty, in order to bring to condign Punishment the Persons concerned therein, is pleased to promise his Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals (except the Person who actually gave the Blow which occasioned the Death of the said Captain Innes) who shall discover one or more of his Accomplices, so as he or they be convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

Navy-Office, Nov. 5, 1736.

These are to give Notice, that the Two Months Wages in Six, due to His Majesty's Ships undermentioned, to the Times against them express'd, will be paid
